5 SENSES OF HELI HIKING

Delight your senses in a pure pristine profusion of mountain backcountry world. A place many dream of, but few dare. A place, after visiting you will never forget but can visit in your mind whenever you need a vacation from reality. Directly from your office, using all of your senses (sight, hearing, taste, smell, touch), you can transport yourself to the mountain peaks and meadows of our office, here in the Gold Range of the Monashee Mountains, rising high within the Canadian Rockies. First you must visit to create the vivid everlasting memories that only the bountiful beauty of wilderness can inspire.

Imagine... Unrestricted views for 360 degrees, as far as the eye can see. Rest your eyes on the splendor of glacier capped mountain peaks. Marvel at the lush forests as they shroud the shadowy, deeply plunging valleys. Be dazzled by the multitudinous varieties of wildflowers, adorned in the most exquisitely tailored, and glamorous dress. Even Giorgio Armani, Oscar de la Renta and Yves Saint Laurent would stand and applaud! Gaze upon the many shades of blue, prismatic as the sun reflects off the slopes and slants, crevasses and crowns of the glaciers. Capture the awe struck expression of your loved ones with your camera as they take in all the natural scenery surrounding them.

Imagine... the absence of noise. This is the sound of peace. After the drumming beat of the helicopter rotors disappears into the distance you experience pure silence. With the exception of a prevailing breeze or even the beat of your own excited heart as you await the adventure ahead. Pause and enjoy the laughter of a burbling stream as it wanders through a meadow. You'll be sure to hear the piercing whistle of a far away marmot. If you listen carefully you may just hear a loan timber wolf howl from across the valley. Enjoy the raucous chatter of friendly whiskey jacks or the echoing screech of a passing eagle.

Imagine... 5 Star cuisine at 9000 feet. You will enjoy a delicious decadent lunch along with treats along the way; creamy cheese, fresh crunchy
