

Spring 2026 Newsletter

Winter fun happened—and what a season it was!

This winter brought us incredible skiing, amazing guests, unforgettable mountain moments, and yes... a few stretches of wild and challenging conditions to keep things interesting. As winter winds down, we're shifting gears into summer mode with huge excitement.

One of the most magical things about mountain life is witnessing the changing seasons—the snowy cloak of winter creeping down into the valleys each fall, then slowly retreating back to the alpine peaks each spring. The transformation never gets old.

New websites are coming soon!

Big things are happening behind the scenes! We're currently building fresh new websites for both Heli Canada Adventures and Revelstoke Ski Touring. Heli Canada Adventures will be launching soon, with Revelstoke Ski Touring following this fall. We've been having a fantastic time working with Kootenay Design to bring these new digital spaces to life. If you have photos or videos from your adventures with us, we'd absolutely love to showcase them on our new websites and celebrate your mountain memories.

Help us out with a Google review!

If you know us, you know we've always cared more about delivering exceptional mountain experiences than chasing online reviews—and that's never going to change.

That said, the mysterious world of search engine algorithms apparently values Google reviews almost as much as powder days or alpine days (hard to believe, we know). If you've joined us as a guest, we'd be incredibly grateful if you could take a few moments to leave a Google review for Heli Canada Adventures or Revelstoke Ski Touring.

Your support helps more adventurers discover what we do. Prefer not to use Google? No problem—our upcoming websites will feature dedicated review pages as well.

Thank you for helping us grow while staying true to what matters most: unforgettable adventures.

After a day of exploration, imagine gourmet meals, live music, and cozy accommodations waiting for you. This is more than just a trip—it's your gateway to Canada's wild alpine beauty.

Time to tuck away the winter gear

As the snow melts, it's time to give your winter gear some well-earned attention:

Remove batteries from your avalanche transceiver

Apply summer wax to skis and boards

Turn down binding DIN settings

Inspect skins, outerwear, and repair needs

Check harnesses, ropes, slings, carabiners, and ice screws for wear. And keep an eye out—spring gear sales can be a dangerous temptation in the best possible way.

Just imagine... moments after buckling your seat belt, the rotor spins faster, the ground falls away, and the busy pace of everyday life disappears beneath you.

This is your invitation to trade routine for adventure.
